How to claim a listing on Tripadvisor

1. Go to the claim a listing page: <https://www.tripadvisor.co.uk/Owners>
2. Search for your business: Type your business name in the search bar to see if a listing already exists.
3. Initiate Claim: If found, click on your business, then select "Claim your free listing" or the link in the "Is this your Tripadvisor listing?" section. If not found, you'll need to add a missing place first by following the prompts to provide your business details.
4. Sign In/Create Account: Log in to your existing Tripadvisor account or create a new one.
5. Verify Ownership: Follow the instructions to verify you're the owner or manager. This usually involves providing your contact info, uploading a government-issued photo ID and taking a face-verification photo for quick approval or using phone/credit card verification.
6. Access Management Centre: Once approved, you'll gain access to the Management Centre to update photos, respond to reviews, and manage your listing details.
